

Norsk Industri
Federation of Norwegian Industries

Norway, a strategic destination for mineral investment

Norway offers a stable economy, world-class infrastructure, and a strong commitment to sustainability—making it an ideal location for mineral exploration and investment. With rich geological resources and a transparent regulatory framework, Norway is positioning itself as a key player in the global energy transition. Join us to discover opportunities that combine profitability with responsible development.

When: March 1st, 2026, 13:00-15:00

Venue: Kensington A, Delta Hotels by Marriott Toronto
75 Lower Simcoe St

Program:

13:00 Welcome & Opening Remarks

Anita Helene Hall, Director Minerals, Federation of Norwegian Industries

13:00-13:10 Government's Mineral Policy

Cecilie Myrseth, Norwegian Minister of Trade and Industry

13:10-13:25 Mapping Norway's Mineral Treasures

Henrik Schiellerup, Department Director, Geological Survey of Norway

13:25-13:35 Navigating Norway's Regulatory Landscape: The New Mineral Act

Bjarte Rambjør Heide, Director, Directorate of Mining with the Commissioner of Mines at Svalbard

13:35-13:50 Experiences investing in Norwegian Mining industry

Clarkson Securities (speaker will be announced)

10 mins break and networking

14:00-14:15 Building Partnerships for Responsible Mining

Ben Chalmers, Senior Vice President, Mining Association of Canada

14:15-14:40: Norwegian Mining in Action: Company Perspectives

- Blue Moon Metals, COO Skott Mealer
- Bluelake Mineral, CEO Jonas Dahllöf
- Nordic Mining, CEO Finn Ivar Marum

14:40-15:00 Panell discussion and Q&As